KVCC Open House scheduled March 21

Fairfield, ME – Kennebec Valley Community College (KVCC) will hold an Open House Thursday, March 21, featuring campus tours, financial aid guidance, program information, and much more.

The Open House from 4-6 p.m. in the King Hall Campus Center will include refreshments. It is free and open to the public.

“This event offers a perfect opportunity for anyone interested in KVCC to come and see what the College has to offer, ask questions, and meet many of the faculty and staff,” Dean of Students Karen Normandin said. “The open house is a great way to explore options for enrolling in our upcoming summer and fall 2013 semesters.”

Special workshops on financial aid and career opportunities will be available. Classrooms and labs on the campus will be open for viewing. As a special bonus, the application fee will be waived for all those attending the open house.

This event will provide an excellent chance to find out what programs are being offered this summer and fall and ask questions about them. Potential students can also explore the many opportunities to transfer credits earned at KVCC to four-year colleges and universities.
